The Company will not be required to accept and/or to keep on its premises, and/or to send out on the Customer's behalf, any Materials which:
- (a) the Company is unable or the Company determines (in its sole discretion) that it would be impractical for the Company, to examine or identify the nature or contents of; or
 - (b) which the Company deems (in its absolute discretion) to be:
 - (i) dangerous, noxious, harmful or deteriorating; or

 - (b) any Materials offending or defaming any third party or infringing any third party's rights, including any copyright, trade mark, service mark, design right, and/or any other intellectual property right or licence of any third party;
 - (c) any claim that in taking any order, the Company was acting in its own capacity and not as the Customer's agent on the Customer's behalf, to the effect that the Company became personally bound thereby; and/or
 - (d) without limitation to the above, any breach by the Customer of these Terms.
- 2.2.11 The Company has a general and particular lien over all goods, materials, data or otherwise from time to time belonging to the Customer, including without limitation the Materials (Goods), for all claims and money owing by the Customer to the Company from time to time in any other way whatsoever, together with the following rights:
